Sale of the portfolio company Etex to Zimmer Holdings

Steinhausen, October 21, 2014. New Venturetec announced today the sale of the portfolio company Etex to the medical device giant Zimmer. The financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed. New Venturetec received cash and pro rata shares of a new created company, Life Science Enterprises which retained two products from Etex. Together with previous proceeds from the investment in Etex, New Venturetec could realize a net gain from the investment.

New Venturetec is a publicly traded Swiss investment company (SIX: NEV) which invests directly in venture capital companies in the area of biotechnology and technology in the USA.
